SPANISH BILLS AT A DISCOUNT—INSURGENTS ARE AGGRESSIVE.

The bank bills issued by the Spanish banks are at 20 per cent discount in Havana. A correspondent of the London Times predicts that within a few months they will be at 50 per cent discount. Thirst

The Remedy

Where to get it.

There are several remedies for thirst. Water is all right, but how much pleasanter is a glass of our sparkling soda to the thirsty palate. Ours is an agreeable remedy. We guarantee a cure, not a permanent cure, however—for a time.

We don't leave anything to chance in preparing our pleasant thirst remedies. We take the utmost pains with every detail. We won't skimp on material either. We use fresh, ripe strawberries for our "crushed strawberry." The same with pineapple. Decayed fruit is never used for our fruit flavors. That's one reason our flavors don't taste like the common sort you get at other places.

The Hawaii dropped anchor in the harbor at 8 a. m. Friday, having on board the remains of Joseph Nawabi. His wife, two sons, daughter and seventeen others came up also. The coffin was brought ashore at Waiānā on a beautifully decorated double canoe, being followed by three other double canoes and four shore boats which made an imposing array. At the bend of the river the hearse was waiting, into which the coffin, covered with an Hawaiian flag and beautiful wreaths, was placed. Sixty-five Hawaiians drew the conveyance by a draped cord and over 500 people formed into procession. When the lead reached the Haili church over 1000 people were in line. The Hawaiian committee men were decorated with a late picture of the deceased on the breast of whose shirt front was seen a silver badge of the "Royal Order of Kalakaua and Kapilani."

The Haili church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Rev. Desha, speaking from the pulpit, said that the body of the deceased would lie in state in the church till Sunday at 2 p. m. when the funeral and procession would take place. Both the Hilo band and the Boarding school band will play at the funeral and interment. The flag of the Hawaii was at halfmast as was also that of the Court House. Wailing of Hawaiians was heard on all sides from the landing to the present depository of the deceased's remains.—Hilo Tribune.

An immense concourse attended the funeral, which was imposing in every respect, as well as of impressive solemnity.
